

CODE OF ETHICS BYLAW
RURAL MUNICIPALITY OF LEASK NO. 464
BYLAW NO 11-2025

A BYLAW TO ESTABLISH A CODE OF ETHICS FOR COUNCIL MEMBERS

PART I

GENERAL

Short Title

1. This bylaw may be cited as the "Code of Ethics Bylaw".

Preamble

2. The members of council of the Rural Municipality of Leask (RM) recognize that their actions have an impact on the lives of all residents and property owners in the community. Fulfilling their obligations and discharging their duties responsibly requires a commitment to the highest ethical standards.

The members of council recognize that the quality of the public administration and governance of the RM, as well as the reputation and integrity, depends on their conduct as elected officials.

Purpose and Interpretation

3. The purpose of this bylaw is to outline basic ethical standards and values for members of council. It is to be used to guide members of council respecting what their obligations are when fulfilling their duties and responsibilities as elected officials. It also explains the procedure for filing a complaint, investigating a complaint, and enforcing these standards and values.

This bylaw is to be interpreted in accordance with the legislation applicable to the RM, the common law and the policies and bylaws of the RM.

Neither the law nor this bylaw is to be interpreted as exhaustive. There will be occasions which council will need to adopt additional rules of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance the public confidence and trust in local government. It is the responsibility of each member of council to uphold the standards and values set out in this bylaw.

Definitions

4. In this bylaw:

- a) Act: means The Municipalities Act.
- b) Complainant: means an individual/organization/municipal employee/member of council.
- c) Designated Officer: means a person designated by council or a person to whom power or authority is delegated by the administrator or, in the absence of a designation by council, the administrator.
- d) Members of Council: means the council of the RM of Leask and includes the reeve and each councillor.
- e) Investigator: means the person or company appointed by council to investigate complaints received by the designated officer.

STANDARDS AND VALUES

5. Members of council must uphold the following standards and values:

a) Honesty

- i. Members of council shall be truthful and open in their roles as council members and as members of the communities they serve.

b) Objectivity

- i. Members of council shall make decisions carefully, fairly and impartially.

c) Respect

- i. Members of council shall treat every person, including other members of council, municipal employees and the public, with dignity, understanding and respect;
- ii. Members of council shall not engage in discrimination, bullying or harassment in their roles as members of council;
- iii. Members of council shall not use derogatory language towards others;
- iv. Members of council shall treat people with courtesy; and
- v. Members of council shall recognize the importance of the different roles others play in local government decision making.

d) Transparency and Accountability

- i. Members of council shall endeavour to conduct and convey council business and all their duties in an open and transparent manner, other than those discussions that are authorized to be dealt with in a confidential manner in a closed session, so that stakeholders can view the process and rationale used to reach decisions and the reasons for taking certain actions; and
- ii. Members of council are responsible for the decisions they make. This responsibility includes acts of commission and acts of omission.

e) Confidentiality

- i. Members of council shall refrain from disclosing or releasing any confidential information acquired by virtue of their office except when required by law or authorized by council to do so; and
- ii. Members of council shall not take advantage of or obtain private benefit from information that is obtained in the course of or as a result of their official duties or position and that is not in the public domain. This includes complying with The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act in their capacity as members of council of a local authority.

f) Leadership and the Public Interest

- i. Members of council shall serve their constituents in a conscientious and diligent manner and act in the best interests of the RM;
- ii. Members of council shall strive, by focussing on issues important to the community and demonstrating leadership, to build and inspire the public's trust and confidence in local government;
- iii. Members of council are expected to perform their duties in a manner that will bear close public scrutiny and shall not provide the potential or opportunity for personal benefit, wrongdoing or unethical conduct.

g) Responsibility

- i. Members of council shall act responsibly and in accordance with the Acts of the Parliament of Canada and the Legislature of Saskatchewan, including The Municipalities Act.
- ii. This duty includes disclosing actual or potential conflicts of interest, either financial or otherwise relating to their responsibilities as members of council, following policies and procedures of the municipality, and exercising all conferred powers strictly for the purpose for which the powers have been conferred. Every member of Council is individually responsible for preventing potential and actual conflicts of interest.

Other Responsibilities of members are as follows:

- i. CONDUCT TO BE OBSERVED -Members are agents of the public whose primary objective is to address the needs of the citizens. As such, they're entrusted with upholding and adhering to the bylaws and policies of the municipality as well as all applicable provincial and federal laws. As public servants, Members must observe a high standard of morality in the conduct of their official duties and faithfully fulfill the responsibilities of their offices, regardless of their personal or financial interests. Members will endeavor to avoid hostility and bitterness, observe proper decorum and behaviour, encourage open discussion in all matters and not withhold or conceal from other Members information on matters which they should be informed of.
- ii. DEDICATED SERVICE – All members should faithfully work towards developing programs to address the needs of the citizens in the course of their duties. Members should strive to perform at a level which is expected of those who work in the public's interest.
- iii. RESPECT FOR DECISION MAKING PROCESS – Members recognize the responsibility of Council in legal sessions and not with individual Members. Members will abide by majority decisions of the council once they are made, even if they disagree with such decisions.
- iv. CONDUCT AT MEETINGS – Members shall respect the chair, colleagues, employees and members of the public present during Council meetings or other proceedings of the RM of Leask No. 464. Meetings shall provide an environment for transparent and healthy debate on matters requiring decision making. Council members shall make every effort to participate diligently in the activities of the committees to which they are appointed and endeavor to attend all council and committee meetings of which he or she is a member.
- v. GIFTS AND BENEFITS – No member shall show favoritism or bias toward any vendor, contractor or others who conduct business with the RM of Leask No.464. Members shall not accept or provide gifts from any vendor or contractor, where is may be perceived to be in exchange for special treatment, which could give rise to a reasonable suspicion of influence to show favor or disadvantage to any individual or organization other than the normal exchange of gifts between persons doing business together. Accepting lunch, small gifts such as caps, mugs, jackets used as promotional items are considered a normal exchange of gifts of doing business together
- vi. USE OF PUBLIC PROPERTY – No Member shall request or permit the use of municipal-owned vehicles, equipment, materials or property for personal convenience or profit, except where such privileges are granted to the general public. Members shall ensure that the business of the Village is conducted with efficiency and shall avoid waste, abuse and extravagance in the provision or use of municipal resources.

PART III

COMPLAINT PROCESS

Informal Complaint Process

6. Any person who has witnessed or believes that a member of council has contravened the bylaw may advise the member, verbally or in writing, that they are in contravention of this bylaw and encourage the member to stop.

Formal Complaint Process

7. To report an alleged contravention of the bylaw, the complainant shall submit the Complaint Form found in Schedule A, personally or by sending the form directly to the designated officer by mail, email, fax or courier.
8. As soon as possible after receiving the complaint, the designated officer will issue the Receipt of Complaint form, found in Schedule B, to the complainant, personally or by sending the form by mail, email, fax or courier.

SR5

9. Within 30 days of issuing the Receipt of Complaint, the designated officer will review the complaint to ensure the following:
 - a) The complaint meets the scope of the code of ethics bylaw; and
 - b) The complaint form is filled out completely and in detail.
10. After review of the complaint, the designated officer shall within 15 days notify:
 - a) The complainant in writing that the complaint does not meet the scope of this bylaw or that the complaint form is not filled out completely. If applicable, the designated officer will direct the complainant to another process for addressing the complaint; or
 - b) The complainant in writing that the complaint meets the requirements of this bylaw; and
 - c) The alleged council member(s) in writing that a complaint has been filed pursuant to this bylaw.
11. The designated officer shall inform all parties of the following:
 - a) Who will be investigating the complaint;
 - b) The investigation process;
 - c) When the investigation will be initiated; and
 - d) How the investigation's findings will be communicated.
12. At the next council meeting, upon being informed by the designated officer, council will acknowledge by resolution that a code of ethics complaint has been filed.
13. CONTRAVENTION DURING A COUNCIL MEETING – if Council is the opinion that a member has violated the Code of Ethics during a council meeting, council may require the member to remove themselves for the remainder of the council meeting. Council may apply additional penalties based on the severity of the contravention.

Investigation

14. The investigation must, as is reasonably possible, protect the names of all parties involved.
15. The investigation shall be done in a confidential, objective and unbiased way.
16. At a minimum, the investigation must:
 - a) Clarify what the complaint is about;
 - b) Verify the information provided in the complaint is relevant and accurate;
 - c) Provide an opportunity for all parties involved to review the preliminary findings and to provide contrary and/or additional information that may be relevant;
 - d) Determine what section(s), if any, of this bylaw was contravened; and
 - e) Summarize the results of the investigation into a written report.
17. The investigator will provide the report to council in a closed meeting.
18. The council member(s) who the complaint is made against shall not participate in the closed meeting.
19. If the complainant is a council member, that council member shall not participate in the closed meeting.
20. Upon the report from the investigator, in an open meeting, council shall pass a resolution stating that the complaint is either unsubstantiated or substantiated.
21. If the complaint is unsubstantiated, it is deemed dismissed and council shall notify all parties involved the following:
 - a) The reasons the complaint is dismissed; and
 - b) The ability to contact Ombudsman Saskatchewan if they feel they have been treated unfairly in the handling of the complaint.
22. If the complaint is substantiated, council shall provide all parties involved the following:
 - a) The reasons for the substantiation;
 - b) What remedial action(s), if any, will be imposed as per section 22; and
 - c) Information about the ability to contact Ombudsman Saskatchewan if they feel they have been treated unfairly in the handling of the complaint.

CRS

Remedial Action

23. The remedial action(s) imposed should be corrective and progressive and have a realistic time frame for completion. Council should take into consideration the nature and severity of the violation as well as whether the council member(s) has previously violated this bylaw.
24. The remedial action(s) imposed by council shall be decided by resolution, at a meeting open to the public. The remedial action may include, but is not limited to:
- An apology, either written and/or verbal, by the member of council to the impacted individual(s), council and/or the general public.
 - Educational training on ethical and respectful conduct. Options are Ombudsman Saskatchewan, Johnson Shoyama or training by council resolution. Organized and paid for by the RM.
 - Repayment of moneys/gifts received.
 - Removal of the member from council committees and/or bodies.
 - Dismissal of the member from a position of chairperson of a committee.
 - Reduction in remuneration and/or benefits and/or expenses.
 - Reprimand

Dispute Resolution

25. If council believes it to be desirable, council may offer the parties to a complaint an opportunity to mediate the complaint.
26. Mediation must be agreed upon by all parties.
27. Mediation shall be handled by a neutral third-party who has experience in the mediation process.
28. Mediation shall be confidential.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

29. This bylaw shall also apply to members of committees, boards, controlled corporations and other bodies established by council who are not members of council.

PART V
